

Teresa Update #10

Hi Family and Friends,

We haven't written lately, but want you all to know that our daughter Teresa's new discharge date from the Rehabilitation Hospital is this Wed, March 10th! She has been working really hard in therapy. She has made more progress, walking 175 feet at a time with her right leg brace and using her walker, and is able to climb steps similar to those she has at both her front and back doors at her house. Therapy is continuing with her right arm and hand; she can bend her arm at her shoulder and elbow, but movements of her wrist and fingers are still recovering very slowly.

The discharge plan is for Home Health Care, with home physical therapy and home occupational therapy to start after her discharge, and then after that, she will "graduate" to outpatient physical therapy. Barb's date to return home is still uncertain, and she will remain in Savannah until Teresa is fully settled at her home.

We appreciate your continued prayers.
